

Councillor allowances and expenses

No councillor is paid an allowance with the exception of the Chairman.

The Chairman has an allowance of £500.0.00 per year to defray the cost of performing this role

Councillors can claim travel expenses at the maximum of 45p per mile when travelling outside the parish on council business.

All such claims are signed off by the full council.